

Contents

Contents.....	7
Antonio GONZALES, Maria Teresa SCHETTINO, Introduction Soundscapes of the Other: on the Question of Legitimated, Contested, and Military Power	9-16
Part I – Popular Dissonances
John THORNTON, Strepitus imperitorum : the Sounds of Assemblies, between Ethnic and Social Otherness	19-40
Alessandro GALIMBERTI, Conjurations, Silences and Movements of the People during the Reign of Commodus	41-51
Anne JACQUEMIN, The Others' Sounds: an Embarrassment for Plutarchus?.....	53-65
Part II – Palace Noises and Sonic Representations
Clelia MORA, Rumours, Delation, Secrecy: the Atmosphere at Court in the Near-East	69-79
Lucio TROIANI, The Sounds of Power in Hellenistic Judaism and in the New Testament. Some Remarks.....	81-88
Part III – Aristocratic and Wartime Clamors
Giusto TRAINA, Barbaric Harmony? The Drums of the Parthians at the Battle of Carrhae	91-102
Blaise PICHON, Sounds of Power among Transalpine Gauls	103-114
Umberto ROBERTO, Before Battle: Germanic War-Songs and War-Dances from Tacitus to the Medieval Cantator	115-135
Abstracts	137-142