

Contents

Anatolia from the Archaic Period to Byzantium

| | |
|---|------|
| Contents | 6 |
| Markus EGETMEYER, François LEFEVRE, Giusto TRAINA, Introduction | 9-11 |

I- Linguistic Exchanges and Interactions in Anatolia

| | |
|---|---------|
| Sarah BERNARD, On the Tracks of Anatolian Alphabets: Borrowings and Innovations | 15-35 |
| Milena ANFOSSO, Phrygian: a Balkan Language Lost in Anatolia..... | 37-66 |
| Florian REVEILHAC, The Status of Lycian and Greek in Pre-Hellenistic Inscriptions in Lycia..... | 67-96 |
| Roberta SCHIAVO, Cilicia in the in the Third Century BC: a Frontier Region in the Conflicts between Ptolemies and Seleucids..... | 97-123 |
| Anahide KEFELIAN, Overview of the Interactions between Roman Anatolia and the Kingdom of Armenia..... | 125-133 |

II- How History is Constructed : Anatolia and its Sources

| | |
|---|---------|
| Germain PAYEN, The War between Eumenes II and Pharnaces (182-179 BC): a Geopolitical Perspective on the Aftermath of the Apamean Treaty..... | 157-181 |
| William PILLOT, Civic Cults and Political Community of the City of Ilion in Troad | 183-208 |
| Anaïs LAMESA, Different Meanings of Καππαδοκία in Strabo's Geography | 209-225 |
| Simone PODESTÀ, The History of Lycia: the Relationship between the Historiographical Fragments and the other Historical Sources..... | 227-243 |
| Guy LABARRE, Conclusions: Languages, Fonts and History of Anatolian Territories | 245-246 |

| | |
|------------------------|---------|
| Geographic index | 215-221 |
|------------------------|---------|

| | |
|---------------------------|---------|
| Prosopographic index..... | 215-221 |
|---------------------------|---------|

| | |
|-----------------|---------|
| Abstracts | 215-221 |
|-----------------|---------|