

Contents

Contents	6
Adam PAŁUCHOWSKI, Foreword	9-10
Włodzimierz LENGAUER, Iza Biežuńska-Małowist (1917-1995)	11-22
Part I – Approaching slavery
Deborah KAMEN, Sarah LEVIN-RICHARDSON, Approaching Emotions and Agency in Greek and Roman Slavery	25-45
David M. LEWIS, Global Slavery for Greek Historians: Prospects and Pitfalls	47-62
Part II – (Re)interpreting slavery
Antonio GONZALES, The Impossible Precarious Slave Labour at Rome?	65-99
Dominika GRZESIK, Connections between Delphic Manumission Inscriptions and Honorific Decrees: the Phenomenon of Delphic Publishing Habit	101-116
Joanna PORUCZNIK, The Name Scythes in the Northern Black Sea Onomastics	117-126
Łukasz SZELĄG, Boeotian Acts of Manumission in the Context of the Epigraphic Curve of the Region	127-142
Part III – Updating slavery
Domingo PLÁCIDO, The End of History and the Renaissance of Critical Thinking	145-164
Alberto PRIETO, Lives of Slaves Written by Themselves	165-175
Adam PAŁUCHOWSKI, The doulos athanatos—This Slave Who Is Immortal Because We Need Him So Much	177-195
Abstracts	197-203