

Contents

Contents . . . . .	6
Sommaire . . . . .	7
David Louyot , Fortifications archeologist in History: the travellers and the first « researchers » in the Cyclades. . . . .	9-33
Emmanuel Golfín , Thucydides and Anaxagoras or Does the Historian's Thought Find its Origin in Philosophy? . . . . .	35-56
Marie-Laurence Haack , Bowls and bullae. An example of cultural transfert . . . . .	57-67
Borja Antela-Bernárdez , Hegemony and Panhellenism: Political Concepts in the age of Philip and Alexander . . . . .	69-89
Guy Labarre - Mehmet Özsait , A Banquet Hall of Men and the Volumnii of Pisidian Antioch . . . . .	91-114
Federico Santangelo , Prediction and divination in Diodorus . . . . .	115-126
Mar Llinares García, José Carlos Bermejo Barrera , To Whom Belongs the Gold of Our Ancestors? "Cultural assets" and their political models . . . . .	127-141
Archaeological and epigraphical survey in Egypt and Northern Sudan. Chronicles 2007 . . . . .	143-154
Slavery and dependence. Chronicles 2007 . . . . .	155-174
A look at the Hellenic publications. Chronicles 2007 . . . . .	175-182
Reviews . . . . .	183-224