

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction — EVA ANTAL AND ANTONELLA BRAIDA	7
CROSS-CULTURAL CONNECTIONS ACROSS THE CHANNEL
The Corinne Effect: British Responses to the Reading of Madame de Staël's Corinne (1807) — Hannah Moss.....	21
“Where arts have given place to arms”: The Poetry of Helen Maria Williams in Paul and Virginia (1788) — David García.....	39
Self-fashioning in the Age of Sensibility: the Duchess of Devonshire's Educational Writings — Hélène Vidal	53
WRITING THE FEMALE SELF AND (SELF-)EDUCATION
Reflections and Thoughts on Education: from the Lady's Magazine to Mary Hays's The Victim of Prejudice (1799) — Dóra Janczer Csikós.	71
Mary Hays's Female Biography : Writing Women into the Public Sphere — Anthony John Harding.	89
Education, the Female Body and Feminine Embodiment in Mary Wollstonecraft's A Vindication of the Rights of Woman (1792) — Nóra Séllei.	107
Critical Companions: Arts-and-Sciences Education for Women and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein (1818) — Kiel Shaub.	121
READING AND EXPERIMENTS IN FORM
War Dramatised in Hannah Cowley's Epic Poem The Siege of Acre (1801) — Angela Escott.....	149
Reading Mary Tighe Reading — Harriet Kramer Linkin	157
Clara Reeve's Epistolary Novel in the Service of Female Education: The School for Widows (1791) — Krisztina Kaló.....	173
Reading and Female Development in The Mysteries of Udolpho (1794) — Angelika Reichmann.	189
WOMEN'S CRITICAL AND ECONOMIC THOUGHT
Educating to Economic Realities through Fiction: Maria Edgeworth and Jane Austen — Marie-Laure Massei-Chamayou.....	209
Dispelling Economic Misconceptions: Jane Marcet's Teaching on Political Economy — Alexandra Sippel	225
Literary Criticism as Women's Rights Activism in Anna Jameson's Shakespeare's Heroines — Magdalena Pypeć.	241
NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS	257
INDEX	261