

Table of Contents

Introduction: Vulnerability and Child Protection	11
Abstracts	19
Part One
Reflecting on Vulnerability	25
1. Education and Vulnerability: Social Diagnosis and Ethical Concerns	27
2. The Ethics of Ordinary Vulnerability and Philosophy of Trauma: Two Convergent Approaches for Rethinking Youth-Protection Practices	39
3. Vulnerability or Risk? When an Ecosystemic Analysis of Cases of Neglect in Child Protection Reveals the Shortcomings of the French Child Protection System	53
Part Two
Reflecting on Vulnerability in Child Protection Research	65
4. Family Reunification: a Challenge for Socio-Educational Action with Families in the Child Protection System	67
5. Vulnerabilities and Families: Conceptual Issues Associated with the Development of Vocational Training	75

6. The Lack of Family Support in the Immediate Postpartum Period and the Risk of Breakdown Associated with the Transition to Parenthood	89
7. The Placement of Children at Risk in Institutional or Individual Substitute Care in the Czech Republic	103
8. De te Fabula Narratur : Neglect and Vulnerabilities of Families, Professionals, and Researchers in the P.I.P.P.I Programme	119
9. Interactional Dynamics in Child Protection	137
10. When Social and Health Vulnerabilities are Both at Play: the Trajectories of Child in Protection	151
11. Defining Cases of Neglect Within the Youth Protection System: the Importance of Parental Participation	163
12. The Dynamics of Supporting Vulnerable Couples within Parenting Centers	177
13. Immigrant Families Receiving Child Protection Services: an Experience at the Intersection of Multiple Vulnerabilities	189
14. The Challenges Associated with Reflecting on Children's Trajectories and the Project in Day-to-Day Work	205
Conclusion: From Vulnerability to Participation	215
General Bibliography	219
Biographical Notes	245